Roger Weyersberg

Roger Weyersberg has served as the Low Brass Instructor at Saginaw Valley University since 2006. Previously he was the Director of Music at the Ovid-Elsie Area Schools from 1973 until 2003. He served as an assistant director and then director of the Lions of Michigan All-State Band for 28 years taking music students around the world in support of Michigan Lions Club International members at international conventions. Roger has served as Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp Conductor for 14 years. He is an Emeritus member of the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association and a member of the American School Band Director Association. He serves regularly as an adjudicator for festivals, and as a mentor for directors and a clinician for music programs around the state of Michigan and Ohio. Mr. Weyersberg is a member of the Saginaw Eddy Band, the Lansing Symphony Big Band, the Maple River Brass Quintet, as well as a contract musician in the greater mid-Michigan area. He and his wife, Nadine, have been married for 43 years.

Marty Marks

Marty Marks is Director of Bands and Professor of Music at Adrian College. In addition to leading the marching, concert and jazz bands, Dr. Marks is the music department chair and teaches conducting, orchestration, and education courses. Dr. Marks holds degrees in music education, clarinet/saxophone performance and wind conducting from Oklahoma Baptist University, the University of Central Oklahoma and the University of Oklahoma. As an Army Reservist, he is the Commander of the 395th Army Band of Mustang, Oklahoma. He is an adjudicator for the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association and an honorary member. Dr. Marks also serves as a clinician/consultant for school bands in Michigan and Ohio, writes drill design and marching band arrangements for area schools and performs in area professional groups as a freelance musician. Under his direction, the Adrian College Bulldog Marching Band was selected to perform New Year's Day Parades in London and Rome. Marty and his wife Melissa live in Onsted, MI where Melissa has served as band director for eight years. They have five children and two grandchildren.
